Tears

Many a woman has periodic crying spells. She meets her husband with eyes red and swollen and he cries out: "What has happened?" "Nothing," his wife replies. "I don't know what is the matter with me, but I just had to have a good cry." Men don't have crying spells. It would seem therefore that an affection confined to women must have its cause in the womanly nature. There is no doubt that a diseased condition of the delicate womanly organs, is in general responsible for feminine nervousness and hysteria.

The use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription makes women happy by making them healthy. There are no more crying spells. "Favorite Prescription" cures inflammation, ulceration and female weakness. It makes weak women strong, sick women well.

There is no medicine "just as good." Accept no substitute.

"For three years," writes Mrs. Mary A. Sasser, of High Lamar Co., Texas, "I suffered with falling of the womb, also ulceration of the womb. After using three bottles of your 'Favorite Prescription,' four of 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of 'Pleasant Pellets,' I found relief. I am able to do my work with ease, and I recommend your wonderful medicine to all my friends, for I truly believe it saved my life."

Free. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Cloth binding 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

No WONDER SHE SUES.—There are a law for men and another for old maids? That is what half the village at Barco, Mich., wants to know, Miss Martha J. Hauser, 50 years old and as unkind as a vial, has brought suit for vengeance and $5,000 against W. E. Hogue, the postmaster, and W. F. Swope, who represents the local interests of Frank Plesch, the Klondike king.

I remained for a bucolic genius to invent a new entertainment that brought all the trouble. Under the guise of a church "social," all the women attending put their hats up at auction, and the man who bought any particular hat was privileged to kiss the woman, the money going into the coffers of the church.

Hogue was auctioneer. When Miss Hauser's bonnet was put up, Swope bid 25 cents. The auctioneer declared it was an excessive price. The affair was on the talk for miles around. Miss Hauser consulted lawyers and filed suit. The next chapter opens with the offer of a silk dress by Hogue to any woman who could put Martha off her feet. Hogue denies that he made the offer. At any rate, soon after there was a lively encounter on the streets between Miss Hauser and Mrs. Matilda Bilmire, the muscular wife of a resident who has been mentioned for the presidency of the village.

In a day or two Mrs. Bilmire appeared in a silk dress that was the envy of the township, and Hogue admits that he bought it and gave it to Mrs. Bilmire. Mrs. Bilmire remarks that "it wasn't hard work to earn it, either."

SENSATIONAL CRIME RECALLED.

Mrs. Luertger's ghost is said to haunt the old sausage factory, in Chicago. John Seifert, the watchman at the factory; August Beck, a saloonkeeper, across the street, and Gustaf Haas, who lives in the house occupied by Adolph Luertger, are certain of the nightly appearance of the apparition. Tuesday night Beck saw the locked door of the factory open and the shade of Mrs. Luertger enter. Seifert went to the door, tried it and found it locked. Then the men were startled by a light appearing one moment in the cupola and the next on the ground floor. Seifert reported the occurrence to the police. Detectives Quinn and Blau were sent to the factory. The light again appeared, and after a merry chase, led them to the place in the basement where the famous middle vat stood in which Mrs. Luertger's body was disintegrated. Quinn rushed to ward it, but the light shot to a corner and took the hazy form of a woman. It disappeared, and the officers returned to the station firm believers in ghosts.

THE CIGARETTE HABIT.—Miss Lucy

Page Gaston, president of the anti-cigarette league, of Chicago, who has been investigating the smoke habit among women, says that the women and girls after dinner, usually smoke cigarettes at an alarming rate. She says there are 25 per cent. more society women smokers than there were last year.

A Good Cough Medicine for Children

"I have no hesitancy in recommending Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says F. P. Moran, a well-known and popular baker, of Petersburg, Va. "We have given it to our children when troubled with bad coughs, also whooping cough, and it has always given perfect satisfaction. It was recommended to me by a druggist as the best cough medicine for children as it contained no opium or other harmful drug." Sold by Richard Gibson, druggist.

CHRONIC NASAL CATARRH poisons every breath that is drawn into the lungs. There is no cure for this trouble. A small quantity of Ely's Cream Balm placed into the nostrils spreads over an inflamed and angry surface, relieving immediately the painful inflammation, cleanses, heals and cures. A cold in the head vanishes immediately. Sold by druggists or will be mailed for 50 cents by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York.

Like Oliver Twist, children risk for more when given Oliver Twist Cough Cure. Mothers endorse it highly for croup. It quickly cures all coughs and colds and every throat and lung trouble. It is a specific for grippe and asthma and has long been a well known remedy for whooping cough.
